Desmond Hill elected new MG Corporation Chair

MG Corporation has undergone a leadership change with Desmond Hill taking over as chairman

Mr Hill, who is also the Chief Executive Officer of Waringarri Aboriginal Corporation, replaces Edna O'Malley who served the past two years as chairperson.

Recent board elections saw a full complement of MG directors appointed to the corporation's board, with Ms O'Malley, Ted Carlton and Ted Hall Junior joining Mr Hill and Helen Gerrard, who is continuing in the role of deputy chairperson.

"With the new board that's been elected we have some new people who bring fresh energy but we've also retained the valuable experience of directors who have already served a couple of terms," Mr Hill said

"I congratulate Edna, Helen and Ted Carlton for their dedicated work during the past few years and look forward to working side by side with them as we look to capitalize on future opportunities to improve the lives of MG people. "
